I. C. STONE, Sec'y. DEATH OF COLONEL TAYLOE .- It pains us to announce the decease of one of our oldest and best citizens, Col Joshua Tayloe. He died after an illness of several weeks, on Thursday morning, the 14th inst., and was interred on Friday afternoon in the Episcopal church-yard. The funeral procession was the largest we recollect ever to have been in our town. This was to have been expected. Col Tayloe was a representative man. He filled a large space in the public eye and in the popular affections. No one who has known Washington and berein directed, or as the Congress may from time to time | mingled in its society for the last forty years, could have failed to have known him intimately. He was Collect or of the Port of Ocracoke under several administrations, and we heard him say a few days before his last illness, in both the District and Circuit Courts of the United States, ed him. He represented Beaufort County several years
